Information Pack for 2015 - 2016

Introduction

The Rotary Youth Speaks Competition is a well-established and successful competition organised and promoted by Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland. It is a four stage competition which is designed to support and encourage the development of effective communication skills. Some stages may have more than one round.

Aims

This competition aims to offer young people:

- experience in speaking on a public platform as a member of a team
- an incentive to formulate ideas on topical subjects
- discipline in dealing with a topic in a limited time
- the opportunity of learning and practising high standards of expression, presentation and appearance
- impartial feedback and assessment of performance by experienced adjudicators

Who can take part?

This competition is open to teams of three students in full time education in two age groups:

Intermediate 11 to 13 years
Senior 14 to 17 years

With the age qualifying date of 31 August 2015, it should be noted that some junior entrants may be 11, intermediate entrants 14 and senior entrants 18 at the time of some or all stages of the competitions (e.g. a competitor who is 17 on 31 August but turns 18 on 1 September is allowed to enter).

Students should enter the competition organised by the local Rotary club through their school, college or other organisation.

Competitors, schools, colleges and other organisations can participate in a district that is outside of their boundary, but can only compete in one club or district.

The Four Stages of the Competition

Local Heats Organised by local Rotary clubs between September and December. Age group winners of local heats are entered into a district competition. Local Rotary Clubs can be found using the club finder in the top right hand corner of the Rotary website rotarygbi.org.

District Competitions

These are organised by Rotary between January and mid-February. For high numbers of entrants, it may be necessary to hold preliminary rounds prior to a district final. Age group winners of district competitions are entered into a regional final.

Regional Finals

These are organised by Rotary between mid-February and March. Age group winners of regional finals are entered into the national final.

National Final

This is organised by Rotary District 1190. This will be held on Saturday 7 May 2016 at Kirkham Grammar School, Ribby Road, Kirkham, Preston, PR4 2BH.

Dates for local heats, district finals and regional finals may have local variations. Interested parties should check dates with their local Rotary club.

Rotary does not fund expenses of the regional winners to attend the national final.

Competition Guidelines

Format

Each team member takes on one of three roles: chairperson, speaker and vote of thanks. The team should be the same throughout the competition. In exceptional circumstances substitutions may be made, subject to the approval of the competition organiser.

Each team member is allocated a time in which to perform their role. The role of each team member is detailed in the procedure section below.

Judges

Judges with appropriate skills appointed by Rotary will apply the judging criteria and provide feedback to all competitors and mentoring to winners. The judges will not discuss marks and their decision will be final.

A Rotarian will not be appointed as a judge for regional or national finals.

Judging Criteria

Chairperson's management of the meeting	25 points
Speaker's ability to present and develop a topic and ability to answer the question	50 points
Quality and courtesy of the vote of thanks	25 points
Team work	15 points

Total 115 points

A judge's score sheet which illustrates the points judges will be particularly looking at is provided at the end of this information pack.

The judges will deduct one point for each complete 15 seconds over the allocated time and one point for each complete 30 seconds under the allocated time. Points will not be deducted for time in answering the question.

Only in exceptional circumstances and at the sole discretion of the competition organiser, will correspondence or discussions be entered into following a competition.

Questioner

The questioner, who shall not be one of the judges, will be appointed by the competition organiser. Speakers will be asked to respond to a question asked by the questioner

The questioner can be a Rotarian but not from a participating club.

Prizes

At all stages of the competition competitors will receive a certificate of participation.

After the judges have determined the result of the competition one or more judges will comment on their observations before announcing the result.

At the national finals, the winning intermediate and senior teams will receive the Rotary Challenge Trophy which may be held for one year. Each member of the winning, second and third teams will receive an individual award.

How to enter

To enter a local heat, interested parties should contact their local Rotary club via the club finder in the top right hand corner of the website rotarygbi.org. In case of difficulty please contact the national organiser Brian Kirkup at youth-speaks@rotarygbi.org quoting the home address and the address of the school, college or other organisation.

Entrants need to complete the entry form at the end of this information pack and submit to the stage organiser at the time specified by the stage organiser.

Competition Procedure

Arrival

Before each competition the competition organiser will conduct a draw to determine the order in which each team will make their presentation. The order will be notified to teams at the competition. If possible, teams will be given prior notice of the order. In unforeseen circumstances the organisers may have to adjust the order.

Arrangements

A master of ceremonies will invite each team in order of the draw, to come to the front or stage to make their presentation.

The team should be ushered into position by the chairperson who should sit down with the speaker on their right and the vote of thanks on their left.

A system of lights or coloured cards will be used to advise team members of time. Green will indicate start, amber will warn that the allocated time is coming to an end and red will indicate the end of allocated time.

Notes may be used. However their use should not be too obvious - simply reading written content will be reflected in the marks. Notes can be written on paper, card, tablet or iPad. If electronic media is used for this purpose it must only be used as a reminder of the content of the speech and not as a prop or as a live means of presenting or sourcing information. Cards as prompts are better than A4 notes but ideally teams should deliver the presentation without either.

Items other than dress or the furniture provided are not permitted to be used as props. The use of props will be severely reflected in the judges' marks. This includes power point.

Where venues would benefit from amplification, static microphones will be provided for team members to use. A sound test will be arranged prior to the start of the competition. If any team member fails to use the static microphones and their words are inaudible the judges will deduct marks.

The team members will perform their roles in the following order:

Chairperson

When the team is ready the chairperson will stand. From this point on the chairperson is in control of the team's performance until the performance is closed after the vote of thanks. The chairperson should briefly link the team's presentations. There is no time penalty involved in this part of the chairperson's role.

The chairperson has two minutes to welcome the audience and to introduce the speaker. The introduction should include the relevance or expertise of the speaker to the subject of their speech.

An amber light will indicate there are thirty seconds left of the allocated two minutes.

Speaker

The speaker has six minutes to speak on their chosen subject. The speaker may choose any subject, subject to the approval of the organisers. Considerable discretion should be used in choosing the subject. Sensitive subjects such as party politics, race or religion should be avoided. The subject may change between stages.

An amber light will indicate there is one minute left of the allocated six minutes

Chairperson

When the speaker has finished the chairperson will invite the questioner to ask a question

Speaker

Before answering the question the speaker may seek clarification of the question via the chairperson. The speaker, who is the subject expert, may not consult about the question with other team members.

The speaker then has about two minutes to answer the question.

An amber light will indicate two minutes are drawing to a close and after the amber light speakers should bring their response to a conclusion.

Speakers are advised to respond spontaneously, without prepared sections, to obtain high marks from the judges.

Chairperson

When the speaker has finished answering the question, the chairman will introduce the proposer of the vote of thanks.

Vote of Thanks

The vote of thanks has two minutes to propose the vote of thanks.

The vote of thanks should remark on both the content of the speech and the response to the question. The audience should then be invited to show its appreciation of the speaker.

An amber light will indicate there are thirty seconds left of the allocated two minutes.

The student giving the vote of thanks is advised to respond spontaneously to the response to the question, without prepared sections, to obtain high marks from the judges.

Chairperson

After the vote of thanks and applause the chairperson will close the proceedings.

Results After the judges have determined the result of the competition, one or more judges will comment on their observations before announcing the result.
